

Washington State Senate

from the desk of—
MICHAEL E. LOWRY
Chief Clerk
Ways and Means Committee

Feb. 28, 1974 - Thurs.

Dear Vicki and Jim,

I am out of writing paper again so will have to use this. It is a windy day this morning but I think spring is here.

I hope you are not having trouble getting gas. Last week we needed gas in both cars so first I took one car down to the Standard station at 7:30 A.M. and got in the line up for forty five minutes. The next morning I went to Hoyer. I thought they had quit selling gas because their sign was always up - No gas - but I drove in and they are selling only to special customers so since I

Washington State Senate

from the desk of—

MICHAEL E. LOWRY

Chief Clerk

Ways and Means Committee

qualify I got the tank filled and no waiting in line. Now Mary and Mike will have me get gas in their cars as they are having a hard time getting it.

Mary has been finishing up her letters at home and is there now. She feels fine and is very happy to be able to relax now. She and Mike will be attending the baby course at the Group Health Hospital once a week. I have finished knitting the layette and it looks awfully cute.

Everyone is so interested in the family information on the Close side. It is really good to have. We hope to see you soon.

Love, Mom.